From the beginning, AWC has played an essential role in my development as a Councilmember. From Elected Official Essentials to numerous City Action Days and Annual Conferences, the education provided, and relationships developed improved my skills as a legislator. Because of the vital role AWC plays in advocating with the legislature, I have taken advantage of additional opportunities to represent my city's concerns and hear the voices of other cities.

I am running for the Board to advocate for cities to have more power over their UGAs, contribute my experience with homelessness and increasing the housing supply issues, and raise the voice of Southwest Washington. I ask for your vote for At-Large Position 1.
